Dedication

For the Class of 1973, our high school years have reached an end. There has been a man who has helped to make these years great ones. Possessing patience and a fine disposition, he was always ready to be a friend or to lend a helping hand when it was needed. Whenever anyone of us had a problem we needed to talk about, "Unc's" door was always open. The Senior Class of 1973 has chosen to dedicate our yearbook to this great man whose inspiration and example we will always remember. We, the Class of '73 dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Edward Silva.

Everyday just gets a little shorter,
Don't you think?
Take a look around you and
You'll see just what I mean,
People got to come together,
Not just out of fear.
Where do we go, where do we go,
Where do we go from here?

Student Government

This year marked the beginning of a new era of student government at Case. The student lounge, mini-courses — each of these was the result of student council activity. Also, for the first time, the students were represented in faculty meetings and also to have some voice in choosing the curriculum for future Joseph Case High School students.

We the people of the '72-'73 Chief Staff have captured the year in a book of pictures and writing — you the people must add the life, the feeling and the stirring of your memory. There have been some bad times but there have been some great ones, too. Look back upon this school year as a great one of association with people who made it so.

A Cross Country runner gets little, if any, glory for his accomplishments. Mile after mile — that was practice. And when a meet came it meant competition and that last final lunge for the finish line. Victory was not always possible yet yours was the victory of trying, of persevering, of never giving up.

The Team

Tri-Captained by Joan Ormerod, Daryl Sunderland, and Wendy Sperduti, the '72 Field Hockey team had a great and enjoyable season. Coach Carolyn Doraz led the girls to victories and at the close, Case placed fourth in the S.E.M. Conference. With only six seniors graduating, the ability and spirit of the underclassmen make next year a very promising and interesting one.

JEFF BLAISDELL

Have Pride!

The poet's world where dimensions differ only according to feeling, not fact, that place of the forth dimension that eludes all but painters, poets, and the players of musical instruments. And it even eludes those at times. That is why they remain children, clinging to those clouds of glory with which we are all born . . .

soon her eye fell on a little glass box that was lying under the table: she opened it, and found in it a very small cake, on which the words "eat me" were beautifully marked in currents. "well i'll eat it," said alice, "and if it makes me grow larger i can reach the key; and if it makes me grow smaller, i can creep under the door, so either way i'll get into the garden, and i don't care which happens!

she ate a little bit, and said anxiously to herself "which way?" holding her hand on the top of her head to feel which way it was growing, and she was quite surprised to find that she remained the same size; to be sure, this is what generally happens when one eats cake, but alice had got so much into the way of expecting nothing but out of the way things to happen that it seemed quite dull and stupid for life to go on in the common way.

so she set to work, and very soon finished off the cake.
